

DIVERSE SUPPLIER MEETING AND MATCHMAKER

Plano, TX | September 17, 2019

JPMorgan Chase is expanding its branch network in the Greater Dallas Fort Worth area. As we grow we also seek to take an active role in the success of the community we serve. We have a long-standing commitment to doing business with Minority-, Women-, Veteran-, Disability -, LGBT+ -owned and small businesses, and require our prime suppliers to support our efforts to achieve a diverse supplier base.

To help meet this mission, a special event will be held to welcome small and diverse business owners in the local area, and pave the way for them to participate in future contracting opportunities as our new branches come to life.

Tuesday September 17, 2019
